

The Feast for All Saints
November 1 2020

*He whom God put forth puts Himself before us
for eternal life.*

South Big Horn Lutheran Parish

Grace Lutheran Church
Greybull

For by grace you have been saved, through faith, and this is not of yourselves, it is the gift of God.

Ephesians 2:8-9

Zion Lutheran Church Emblem

Shout, and sing for joy, O inhabitant of Zion, for great in your midst is the Holy One of Israel.

Isaiah 12:6

Notes for the Feast

On the Feast for All Saints we remember all those who have passed over and gone before us in the faith. We are reminded that those who die in Christ die into His victory over sin and death and into that fullness of life which is in Him. And we are reminded that His victory is ours also, and we shall be with Him when it is time ...

The festive colour is white, signifying the purity given to us in Christ, like the priestly robes of the righteous before His throne - or golden, pointing to the heavenly treasures ...

About Holy Communion

Holy Scripture teaches that as an expression of unity (Acts 2:42) Christians should share the Sacrament only with those with whom we are united in a common faith. We honour this teaching as our due obedience, and also to guard the uninstructed and those who do not submit to the full counsel of God against spiritual harm (1 Corinthians 11:27-29). As such, only Christians who share our faith and confession and therefore belong to congregations in the fellowship of the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod will commune in our church. We sincerely welcome our visitors; we assure you that we uphold this practice also out of concern for your spiritual welfare, and that our Pastor would love to study Scripture with you and help you embrace the full counsel of God, so that we can share the Sacrament in a manner pleasing to God and beneficial for us all.

This we believe - from the Confessions of our Church

Therefore the righteousness which is imputed to faith or to the believer out of pure grace is the obedience, suffering, and resurrection of Christ, since He has made satisfaction for us to the Law, and paid for our sins.

Formula Concord, the Solid Declaration

Just so we do not forget:

How is God's will done?

God's will is done when He breaks and hinders every evil plan and purpose of the devil, the world, and our sinful nature, which do not want us to hallow God's name or let His Kingdom come, and when He strengthens and keeps us firm in His Word and faith until we die.

This is His good and gracious will.

We shall continue our theme from last year, The only Son from Heaven - but not the only son, and meditate upon how the lives and fates of three sons of David point to our Lord Jesus and what He has done and is for the sinners who are His Church.

Do not be miserable without letting your Pastor know about it. Not that your Pastor likes to learn that you are miserable; but if you are, he would like to know. Your Pastor might not know about the things that are happening in your life; or he might know of what is happening, but not be aware of how it is bothering you, or how much. He should be, though: part of what he is there for is to help you through difficult times. And letting him do so is part of what it means to have a Pastor and be Church and be Christian. So please, if there are things that are bothering you in your life, please let your Pastor know about it.

A Stewardship Thought for the Sunday: Part of our readings today is Matthew 5:7 - "Blessed are the merciful, for they shall receive mercy." This is one of many Bible passages that remind us that we reap what we sow. Likewise, what God puts into us - His own love, mercy, kindness, and generosity - flows back out of us. It all starts with His self-giving. From the LCMS Stewardship Ministry
